Eligibility Requirements: Scholarships are limited to MOSES members (including Active Retirees), their spouse or children, as well as the spouses and dependent children of deceased MOSES members under the following condition:

The member or immediate family member plans to attend and has been accepted at an accredited higher education facility for the fall 2018 semester.

Restrictions: If a winner's educational expenses are less than the award, and/or the winner has received reimbursement from another source, the scholarship will be decreased to the appropriate amount. Awards are not transferable.

The MOSES Goodwill Committee, chaired by John Bardzik, administers the scholarship program and will conduct the drawing. There were over 375 applications in 2017, each applicant was given a random number; the 30 winners and 5 alternates were drawn from a hat containing all of the numbers during the September General Membership Meeting.

Please apply as soon as possible. All applications must be received in the MOSES office by noon, Monday, September 10, 2018. Of course, all members are welcome to attend the September General Membership Meeting to witness the drawing.
